

Dillon Battistini

INDYCAR Race Driver

PERSONAL DETAILS

- Height: 5ft 9ins
Weight: 67 kgs
Nationality: British - Resides Indianapolis USA
Ambition: To compete against the best and win at the highest levels of motorsport.
Attitude: Dillon fully appreciates the requirements and responsibilities needed to help a sponsor maximise their relationship. His articulate nature puts him in an ideal position to attend company promotions and exhibitions where his presence will enforce the brand building objectives of his sponsors.

A BORN CHAMPION

Dillon was born and raised in the UK with an Italian father and a British mother. His father financed his Karting career and after great success he moved into racing cars. Dillon competed in Formula 3 in Asia, racing in China, Indonesia, Philippines and Australia, becoming Asian Formula 3 champion in 2007. He gained valuable experience racing in hot climates, mixing with many cultures and showed he could perform confidently on live TV and under media scrutiny. After a very successful Champ Car test with Minardi Team USA, Dillon competed in the 2008 U.S. Indy Lights Series with Panther Racing. He made a name for himself by winning four times in his 'rookie' year including the 'blue riband' race, the Freedom 100 at the Indianapolis 500 and becoming test driver for Panther Racing's National Guard, Delphi No 4 IndyCar. In 2011 Dillon made his IndyCar Race debut at Kentucky Speedway with Conquest Racing .

"Out of nowhere, it seemed Dillon Battistini burst into Indy Lights, won on his debut, won at Indy and is a constant contender for victory. He's taken to ovals like Nigel Mansell"

Racer Magazine

"Battistini is undoubtedly a major talent"

Motorsport News

"I was also impressed with Dillon's professional approach and feedback. A good solid effort where he didn't put a foot wrong"
